WEST POINT CADETS EARN PRESTIGIOUS SCHOLARSHIPS – Dec. 4, 2018

WEST POINT, N.Y. – Several U.S. Military Academy cadets have been selected to receive prestigious scholarships allowing for continued academic study following graduation and commissioning in May from the Schwarzman Scholar Program and the Marshall Foundation.

Each new cohort of Schwarzman Scholars joins a global network of the world's most talented young leaders, helping to build stronger links between China and a rapidly changing world. This scholar experience is anchored in a rigorous and innovative Master of Global Affairs degree at Tsinghua University, one of the country's leading universities.

The Marshall Scholar program is a postgraduate opportunity funded by the British government for intellectually distinguished young Americans to study abroad at a university in the United Kingdom, in any field of study. The goal of the program is to strengthen the relationship between the two countries for the good of mankind.

Schwarzman Scholars

Kevin Colton, Johns Creek, Georgia
Eva Gould, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Marshall Scholars

David Bindon, Canton, Michigan
Robert Drummond, Haymarket, Virginia
Madeleine Schneider, Darien, Connecticut

About West Point

The U. S. Military Academy at West Point is a four-year, co-educational, federal, liberal arts college located 50 miles north of New York City. It was founded in 1802 as America's first college of engineering and continues today as the world's premier leader-development institution, consistently ranked among top colleges in the country. Its mission remains constant—to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country and prepared for a career of professional excellence and service to the nation as an officer in the U. S. Army. For more information, go to www.westpoint.edu.
